ENY Arbitration case #6 LISFL Astoria United vs NY Polet (Arsanovic Izet)

After reviewing all the evidence in the referee report, the players response letter and the testimony of the Astoria Over-30 Manager Adnan Rudanovic, the state has decided to reduce the suspension of the player Izet Arslanovic from two years to a one year suspension (June 30th, 2021-through June 30th, 2022), followed by one year of prohibition. During probation, the player will be expected to demonstrate behavior indicative of an ex-professional.

The state decision to reduce the suspension by one year and put the player on probation for one year following the suspension, was based upon the evidence presented and the fact that the player is an ex-professional and national team player and has no prior track record. The state expects a player of such stature to carry themselves better on the field of play and to respect all game officials, most notably the referee. Given the graphic description in the referee report, and the fact that the player did not demonstrate any remorse or provide any apology for his behavior, the state is issuing this suspension effective immediately.

Best,

Mike Fitzgerald
